

PREFACE

This booklet was prepared to provide access to certain laws relating to sex offenders, offenders who are convicted of a crime against a child, and parole as those laws existed prior to the enactment of Assembly Bill No. 579 (2007) and Senate Bill No. 471 (2007). The laws set forth in this booklet are now the current law because on October 7, 2008, the United States District Court for the District of Nevada permanently enjoined the State of Nevada from enforcing A.B. 579 and S.B. 471 in ACLU of Nevada v. Masto et al., Case No. 2:08-cv-00822-JCM-PAL. Based on the reasoning in Finger v. State, 117 Nev. 548 (2001) and Johnson v. Goldman, 94 Nev. 6 (1978), the statutory changes made by Assembly Bill No. 579 (2007) and Senate Bill No. 471 (2007) have been rendered null and void by the order of the district court, and the NRS provisions pertaining to sex offenders that existed before the enactment of those bills remain in effect as if those bills were never enacted. This section was further amended by section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 325 (2009), ch. 300, Stats. 2009, at p. 1293, to require a person convicted of certain sexual offenses who is placed on probation or a suspended sentence to get approval from the "Chief Parole and Probation Officer or his designee" instead of the "parole and probation officer assigned to the defendant" before the person may have contact with a victim or witness who testified against the person. This section was further amended by section 6 of Senate Bill No. 354 (2007), ch. 418, Stats. 2007, at p. 1919, to provide that as a condition of parole, certain offenders may reside at a facility that houses more than three persons who have been released from prison only if the facility is a facility for transitional living for released offenders that is licensed pursuant to chapter 449 of NRS.

This section was further amended by section 2.5 of Assembly Bill No. 325 (2009), ch. 300, Stats. 2009, at p. 1301, to require a person convicted of certain sexual offenses who is placed on parole to get approval from the “Chief Parole and Probation Officer or his designee” instead of the “parole and probation officer assigned to the defendant” before the person may have contact with a victim or witness who testified against the person. In addition, A.B. 325 requires the written agreement authorizing such contact to be signed and agreed to by the Chief Parole and Probation Officer or his designee.

NRS 213.130 Department of Corrections to determine eligibility for parole and provide data to Board; use of photographs related to offense when considering parole; meetings to consider prisoner for parole; notice to victim.

1. The Department of Corrections shall:
- (a) Determine when a prisoner sentenced to imprisonment in the state prison is eligible to be considered for parole;
 - (b) Notify the State Board of Parole Commissioners of the eligibility of the prisoner to be considered for parole; and
 - (c) Before a meeting to consider the prisoner for parole, compile and provide to the Board data that will assist the Board in determining whether parole should be granted.

2. If a prisoner is being considered for parole from a sentence imposed for conviction of a crime which involved the use of force or violence against a victim and which resulted in bodily harm to a victim and if original or duplicate photographs that depict the injuries of the victim or the scene of the crime were admitted at the trial of the prisoner or were part of the report of the presentence investigation and are reasonably available, a representative sample of such

A prisoner may not bring a cause of action against the State of Nevada, its political subdivisions, agencies, boards, commissions, departments, officers or employees for any action that is taken pursuant to this subsection or for failing to take any action pursuant to this subsection, including, without limitation, failing to include photographs or including only certain photographs. As used in this subsection, “photograph” includes any video, digital or other photographic image.

3. Meetings to consider prisoners for parole may be held semiannually or more often, on such dates as may be fixed by the Board. All meetings must be open to the public.

The victim of a prisoner being considered for parole may submit documents to the Board and may testify at the meeting held to consider the prisoner for parole. A prisoner must not be considered for parole until the Board has notified any victim of his rights pursuant to this subsection and he is given the opportunity to exercise those rights. If a current address is not provided to or otherwise known by the Board, the Board must not be held responsible if such notification is not received by the victim.

5. The Board may deliberate in private after a public meeting held to consider a prisoner for parole.

6. The Board of State Prison Commissioners shall provide suitable and convenient rooms or space for use of the Board.

7. If a victim is notified of a meeting to consider a prisoner for parole pursuant to subsection 4, the Board shall, upon making a final decision concerning the parole of the prisoner, notify the victim of its final decision.

8. All personal information, including, but not limited to, a current or former address, which pertains to a victim and which is received by the Board pursuant to this section is confidential.

9. For the purposes of this section, “victim” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 213.005. [12:149:1933; 1931 NCL § 11580]—(NRS A 1957, 333, 740; 1973, 844; 1977, 263; 1983, 1332, 1439, 1658; 1995, 408, 2067, 2069; 1997, 3245; 1999, 132, 1279; 2001 Special Session, 202)
